DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1, 6, 21, and 27 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 lines 7-8 recites “said one or messages” and claim 21 lines 3-4 and 6-7 recites “said one or more marked messages” and “said one or more notification message”. It is unclear if “the messages” in claim 1 is referring to the same messages as in line 2 or if it is referring to “marked messages” or “notification message” as in claim 21. For similar reasons, claim 2 is unclear and confusing if the “messages” are all referring to the same message or different messages.

Claim 6 line 2 recites “the number of minutes said one of more messages”. This phrase is unclear and confusing as to what “the number of minutes said one or more messages” is referring to.

Claim 27 line 7 recites “in response to said determining step determining that the amount” This phrase is unclear and confusing because of grammatical errors and not known what “determining step determining” is referring to.

Appropriate clarification and/or correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Regarding claim 2, Mohler teaches the system of claim 1, wherein said capacity calculator is configured to count the number of messages stored in said mailbox(col.5 lines 48-50; no messages is 0 count and more than 1 count is a few).

Regarding claim 3, Mohler teaches the system of claim 1, wherein said capacity calculator is configured to determine the amount of time said one or more messages occupy(col.4 lines 1-17 and lines 57-67; amount of time of a 100% fill rate is left).

Regarding claim 4, Mohler teaches the system of claim 1, wherein said mailbox is located in a non-volatile memory device(Fig.1).

Regarding claim 16, Mohler teaches the system of claim 14, wherein said notification messages includes stuttering the telephone dial tone(col.4 lines 20-43; dial tones stutter).

Regarding claim 17, Mohler teaches the system of claim 1, further including a user alert profile table to store information as to where said one or more notification messages are to be sent(Fig.1 and col.4 lines 40-48 and col.5 lines 19-30).

Regarding claim 18, Mohler teaches the system of claim 1, wherein said multimedia messaging system is an electronic mail system(col.4 lines 36-43).

Regarding claim 19, Mohler teaches the system of claim 1, wherein said multimedia messaging system is a facsimile server(col.4 lines 36-43).

Regarding claim 20, Mohler teaches the system of claim 1, wherein said multimedia messaging system is a voice mail system(col.4 lines 36-43).

Regarding claim 21, Mohler teaches a multimedia messaging system comprising: a mailbox adapted to receive and store one or more messages; a message transmittal unit responsive to said mailbox receiving said one or more marked messages to enable one or more notification messages to be generated, and a user alert table to store the one or more locations where said one or more notification message are to be sent(Fig.1 and col.4 lines 1-43).

Regarding claim 22, Mohler teaches the system of claim 21 wherein said one or more locations includes user contact information(Fig.1 and col.4 lines 40-48 and col.5 lines 19-30).

Regarding claim 27, Mohler teaches a multimedia messaging system, a method for generating notification messages, comprising:
receiving and storing one or more messages, determining the amount of space occupied by said one or more messages(Fig.1 and col.4 lines 1-43), and automatically enabling one or more notification messages to be generated in response to said determining step determining that the amount of space occupied by said one or messages exceeds a predetermined threshold(Fig.1 and col.4 lines 1-43).

Regarding claim 28, Mohler teaches the method of claim 22, further including the step of storing one or more addresses where said one or more notification message are to be sent(Fig.1 and col.4 lines 1-43).
